Treasury of the United States,

Washington, April 17, 1883.

Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 16th inst. advising me of shortage amounting to $2.89 in Minor Coins forwarded on Transfer Order No. 11219, and asking how this difference is to be made up.

In reply, I beg to hand you herein Transfer Check No. 21380, on Assistant Treasurer U.S. Philadelphia, in your favor for amount short as reported, and, have to request that you will credit my account with full amount of said Transfer Order, viz: $2,788.19.

I have also to request that you will return to this office counterfeit and Spurious coins described in your report of examination and count of said remittance and also the bags which were found short and which contained the Spurious coins.

Very respectfully
